

Brynich Farm Holiday Cottages

Our beautiful holiday cottages were converted in 2001. The conversion of these buildings has been a labour of love for the Jones family. Colin and Maureen Jones (Mark & Cath's Mum and Dad) bought Brynich during the 1960s, and up until 2001, these Grade II listed buildings were still being used as sheds for the family farm.

It has taken a huge amount of hard work and love to convert the buildings to the wonderful state they are now in. Restoration of 'The Barn' and the cottages was completed in 2003, and we are still working hard to maintain the high standards. Mark and his wife Becca now oversee the running of the cottages, so if you have any questions, don't be afraid to ask.

The cottages sleep a total of 21-24 people.
